Adjustable power: This means the power can be adjusted to control the gas to grill the meat or vegetables to your desired state.

Uniform heat :The `||CoreProductType||` has a metal plate that distributes the heat evenly over a very large cooking surface.

Grilling in a healthier way: Since the flame does not come into direct contact with food, this table barbecue offers a healthier way to cooking than the classic gas or charcoal barbecue. The cooking residue is also collected in a special container.

High quality product: The `||CoreProductType||` is made of polished enamelled steel with a stainless steel front panel. It is equipped with black dials and two stainless steel burners.

Safety: For added safety, the gas stops automatically if the flame goes out.

Easy to move: The `||CoreProductType||` can be taken anywhere. A trolley is made available to increase mobility.

Number of people: This barbecue has a large grill surface that can grill for `||Suitable for #persons||`.
